

LODGE ASSAILS PROVISIONS OF LEAGUE PACT

Galleries Give Unusual Demonstration of Approval

WASHINGTON, Aug. 12.—The traditional decorum of senate procedure was upset today by an unusual demonstration of approval from the galleries following an address by Senator Lodge of Massachusetts, chairman of the foreign relations committee, assailing provisions of the league of nations covenant.

His senatorial friends, for more than a minute spectators applauded and cheered in violation of senate rules and then when order had been restored they interrupted with hoots and hisses, a speech by Senator Williams, Democrat, Mississippi in reply to Mr. Lodge. In spite of sharp admonition from the chair there were more hisses mingled with applause when Senator Hitchcock, Democrat, Nebraska, seconded Senator Williams' speech.

Vice President Marshall made no attempt to check the first demonstration until it had begun to die out, but later he twice threatened to clear the galleries unless order was preserved.

Senator Lodge's address was aimed chiefly against league provisions which he said would make the United States "a subject nation," and ended with an appeal for the preservation of Americanism. The covenant in its present form, he asserted, would not establish a league of peace but would destroy the Monroe Doctrine and give other nations the power to decide domestic American questions and to order American troops into foreign service.

Williams Attacks Lodge. Senator Williams bitterly assailed the foreign relations chairman, declaring that in three months of preparation he had worked his address to serve Republican political ends and to play to the galleries.

There was no appeal in Senator Lodge's address for rejection of the league altogether, nor was there any mention of the program of reservations proposed by seven Republican senators as a basis of its acceptance. It was learned, however, that this program had been discussed with him by some of its sponsors and that a conference of Republicans had been held soon at which an attempt will be made to bring the Massachusetts senator and others into agreement on a plan.

It was understood the reservation group felt they had good ground for believing that their proposal would be accepted by Mr. Lodge and that enough Republicans then could be lined up to insure success of the movement should the Democratic leaders give their assent. There was an unusually tumultuous session of the foreign relations committee which David Hunter Miller, legal adviser to the league of nations commission at Versailles, was vigorously questioned by Republican senators about the Genesis of the league covenant and the meaning of its provisions. Clashes over the manner of questioning the witness resulted repeatedly in intervention by the chairman.

Discussed Composite Plan. Mr. Miller said he never had seen the "American plan" for a league of nations until it was in printed form ready for submission to the commission and that later the basis of discussion by the commission was a composite plan framed from the drafts of the various nations by himself and C. J. P. Hurst, a legal attaché of the British foreign office. Under questioning he said he was a law partner of Gordon Auchincloss, son in law of Colonel E. M. House, and never had any experience in international negotiation until he was given an appointment in the state department in 1917.

The witness was asked hypothetical questions about the operation of the league covenant and his answers were often objected to by Republican members as evasive.

On some of the questions he reserved judgment. It was the opinion of committee members that Mr. Miller would not be recalled and that no further witnesses would be asked to come before the committee. Some members want to ask that Colonel House be called to answer questions about the league, but the general expectation is that the proposal will be abandoned because too great a delay would result.

Miners Vote To Remain On Strike

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Aug. 12.—Five hundred miners at a meeting here late today voted to "remain on strike" and named delegates to the convention of strikers at Belleville tomorrow.

Conservatives in the hall were howled down when they tried to oppose continuation of the strike and at times the session was tumultuous.

Attacks on state miners' officers characterized some of the speeches before the strike vote which bound the miners to stay away from work "until the state executive family is ousted."

Telegrams were read from strike leaders at Belleville and Peoria which said the strike in these districts was progressing satisfactorily.

Just before the meeting was convened it was announced that Frank Farrington, state miners' president, had called a meeting of his own for tomorrow night to justify his position against which, he said, radicals in the union were fighting.

Farrington traced the "rebellion" to his insistence that the Mooney strike July 5 was a violation of the state agreement and that fines imposed by operators were legal.

President Farrington said not more than 15,000 members of the miners' union out of a membership of 90,000 were idle and that at many of the mines, now closed down, shortage of cars caused the shutdown.

Operators here today said that only two mines in this immediate vicinity were affected by the strike.

POLICE UNABLE TO CHANGE WOMEN'S STOR

DANVILLE, Ill., Aug. 12.—Mrs. Martha Holtz and niece, Mrs. George Whisman, charged with the murder of Walter J. Whisman husband of the latter and serious wounding Charles D. Holtz, husband of the former have not deviated from the story they first told concerning the shooting Saturday morning at the Holtz home. Every effort made by State's Attorney Lewman and Chief of Police Keilly to entangle them has failed and the officials admit they at present have no evidence on which they could be convicted.

Holtz on his bed in a local hospital also sticks to his statement made Monday after his alleged sudden recovery of memory that he saw a strange man in his bedroom immediately before being shot in the head. The two women in the held a long conference with their lawyers and it was later stated that an attempt would be made to secure their release following the preliminary hearing which will be held after the coroner's inquest Thursday afternoon.

PREDICT DROP IN SHOE PRICES

BOSTON, Aug. 12.—Predictions of a decided drop in shoe prices were made by leather dealers and shoe manufacturers who testified today at the grand jury investigation of the high cost of living being conducted by District Attorney Joseph C. Pelletier. The opinion was held that the decline might not come for another year.

Witnesses said that the people demanded a high grade of shoes and were willing to pay for them. One firm, it was brought out had millions of dollars worth of cheaper grades of sole leather on hand which manufacturers would not buy because it did not come up to the standard demanded by purchasers.

Witnesses all asserted it was said that the margin of profit on high grade shoes was no greater today than that received when shoes were selling at a lower price.

CORN CROP LARGER THAN LAST YEAR

LINCOLN, Neb., Aug. 12.—Nebraska's 1919 corn yield is forecast at 174,830,000 bushels or 51,744,000 bushels more than last year.

This estimate was made in the August crop report of the United States bureau of crop estimates and the state board of agriculture issued last night. The predicted production however, is 13,766,000 bushels under the five year 1913-1917 average.

Cold, wet weather in the spring, cut worms and drouth in the summer are held responsible for reducing the expected yield.

MEET TO FRAME WAGE DEMAND

CLEVELAND, O., Aug. 12.—Chairmen of three hundred localities of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Engineers, representing 117,000 firemen and hostlers in the United States and Canada convened today to frame a demand for increased wages to be presented to the railroads.

DEMAND CHANGE IN GOVERNMENT WHEAT STANDARD

Committee Approves Plan To Present it to Barnes

WASHINGTON, Aug. 12.—Demands that changes be made in government wheat standards under the price guarantee act "so as not to penalize every grower of wheat," were made in a statement prepared by Chairman Gronna and representatives of farm organizations and approved today by the senate agriculture committee.

Chairman Gronna announces that a committee would be named to present the demands to Julius H. Barnes, president of the United States Grain corporation and representatives of the department of agriculture in the hope of having modified various government regulations by which it was charged "the producers are defrauded and the consumers receive no benefit."

In the statement designed to give the farmers' side of the high cost of living question the senate committee said it believed grave injustice was being done the farmer and might "continue to accumulate and seriously injure not only agriculture, but the entire nation as well."

Farmers No Less Concerned. "While entirely sympathetic with the hardships which present prices cause the people in the city," said the statement, "farmers individually and through their organizations are no less concerned with their own economic situation."

"Julius H. Barnes, of the United States Grain corporation, openly states his policy to sell wheat, curtail our foreign shipments and use the resale of wheat to help control the domestic market price against further advances. The result of such a policy together with the manipulation of a system of grades and standards has been to reduce materially the farmers' income and to deny him access to a free market where he can secure actual cost of production."

"We believe city people should know that the average annual labor income of the farmer, including that of his wife and children as shown by the past federal census was only $318.22. They should know that owing to manipulation in administering grades and standards together with the damage done by hot weather to the maturing crops, the winter wheat producers are receiving as low as $1.15 per bushel for the wheat—no $1.26 which Mr. Barnes gives as a theoretical average—and that this year's crop may average not over $1.50 per bushel net."

"We at this time shall insist on a change in the wheat standards so as not to penalize every grower of wheat."

APPEAL TO ALLIES NOT TO WITHDRAW ARMY

WASHINGTON, Aug. 12.—Appeals for continued military and financial support have been sent to the United States and the Allied governments by the provisional government of the northern region of Russia at Archangel. The appeals received today in Washington are understood to be identical with those forwarded to the other allied countries, said inevitable disaster would follow withdrawal of allied aid.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 12.—The railroad Brotherhoods thru their counsel, Glenn E. Plumb today laid before the house interstary committee their charges of corruption in the management of the railroads under private control. The charges were that many of the great railway systems had been plundered systematically by the financial interests and that the railroads illegally held millions of acres of public lands.

Says Roads Gave Stock Away. Eighteen representative railroads of the country, Mr. Plumb asserted issued stock aggregating $50,114,000 between 1910 and 1918 as bonuses and paid millions of dollars in dividends on these bonuses. These same railroads, he charged were controlled in whole or in part by the Morgan, the Rockefeller and the Gould interests.

Coupled with the charges which came just before the house committee closed its hearings on organized labor's bill for elimination of private capital from railroad ownership was the demand by Mr. Plumb that congress make a thorough investigation of the matter so that the American people may know to what extent it is sought to subject them to exploitation, under the other plans proposed for future disposition of the railroads.

There was no intimation as to what course the committee might take in regard to the request for an investigation. Chairman Esch indicated that to go into the charges would be like traveling over old ground, as they had been threshed out long ago. Plumb said he either had the evidence to support every charge or knew whether it could be obtained. Presentation of the charges apparently failed to arouse much interest among members.

Thinks People Would Object. A. B. Garretson, former head of the Order of Railway Conductors, closing his statement, declared that if a vote were taken today the country probably would reject organized labor's plan. He explained however, that this would be due to general suspicion against new things and predicted it would be endorsed and adopted in the not distant future.

Mr. Garretson expressed the opinion that there had been no fair test of government operation of railroads, because the railroads since being taken over had been operated by officials who were opposed to government ownership and wanted to demonstrate that it was not best for the country.

With the filing of Plumb's charges, the committee concluded hearings on his plan for public ownership and the final argument of the railroad and labor officials have testified are more radical than that framed by Mr. Plumb. It probably will be a month before the committee can make a final report.

In a statement issued after the final adjournment it was stated that in the 18 months of the board's existence it had adjudicated more than 1,200 labor disputes and had succeeded in preventing any serious trouble or interference with the production of war material during the war. The cost of the upkeep and operations of the board was placed at approximately $750,000 which was paid out of President Wilson's emergency fund.

Plumb Charges Corruption In Management of Aviation

WASHINGTON, Aug. 12.—Concentration of the air activities of the United States civilian, naval and military within the direction of a single governmental agency with an official in the president's cabinet at the head is recommended by the special American aviation mission headed by Assistant Secretary of War Crowell which has been studying aircraft developments in Europe.

In making public the report today, Secretary Baker disapproved the recommendation for a department of aviation holding that the mission has "in my judgment gone too far in suggesting a single centralized air service."

"The proposed department of aviation," should be charged with full responsibility for placing and maintaining our country in the front rank among nations in the development and utilization of aircraft for the national security and in the advancement of civil aerial transportation and communication arts."

In disagreeing with this feature Mr. Baker said: "Army and navy aviators are specialists in the art; both the airplanes and pilots needed are of a different type from those needed in civilian undertakings. A separation of the air service from the army or navy would require coordination of their activities in time of war, whereas effectiveness in military operation rests on the singleness of authority, command and purpose."

BOLSHEVIK INVADE LEGATIONS IN RUSSIA. WASHINGTON, Aug. 12.—Invasion by the bolsheviks of all legations and consulates in Petrograd and Moscow and the wholesale arrest of foreigners regardless of nationality early in June was reported to the state department from Danish sources.

The information was brought out of Russia by a Danish Red Cross mission now in Warsaw. On June 2 and 3 bolshevik policemen entered all foreign consulates and legations sealing them when they withdrew.

Red Cross branches in Petrograd, Moscow, Samara and Homel were invaded. Foreigners arrested during the police raid are alleged to have been interned at Moscow. The Danish Red Cross mission worked with slight success to secure the release of foreign-born various nationalities held in Petrograd whom the bolsheviks had promised to release, it was said.

Altho members of the Actors' Association are appearing in at least three other theaters the management of those houses said they had not been involved. ## MOTOR CARS COLLIDE TUESDAY EVENING

A Case of Too Many Turning the Corner at the Same Time. A collision of motor cars, in which fortunately no one was injured, occurred at the corner of West State Street and Webster avenue last night. A Buick car owned by P. Bonansinga and driven by his son Frank, was traveling west on State street and reaching Webster avenue started to turn into that thoroughfare. It was in the car with Mr. Bonansinga that they noticed another car coming up behind them but thought it too far back to pay any attention to. Upon making the turn into Webster they saw the other car full upon them. It was said that this car, a Hudson Super Six driven by Paul Frank, struck the Bonansinga car from the rear on the right hand side, throwing the Buick over against the west curb and against a telephone post. The impact against the post broke the front springs, smashed the lights, and bent the fender of the car, the Hudson also carrying away a good portion of the running board from the right hand side.

Mr. Frank states that Mr. Bonansinga and he was traveling west on State street and as they neared Webster avenue were about to turn, the Buick car being a little in front of him; that he tried to make the turn as close to the right side of the corner as possible, but that as the Bonansinga car turned at the same time, altho it was impossible for him to keep from scissoring their running board as they made the turn.

The witness was said to have recalled that after several such occasions, Mr. Clugston became ill and vomited. Ex-President Taft says that the adoption of the Plumb plan for railroad administration would bring about a Soviet government in this country. The ex-president is not always right but he has a judicial mind and his opinion on any subject justifies a careful study from that point of view.

EVERYTHING HAS AN END

The Ford-Tribune libel suit is nearing the end, at least the taking of testimony is finished and it should not take the jury more than three or four weeks to make up their minds as to their finding in the case. Unless it is a hung jury no doubt the verdict has already been mentally formed, and it is a safe guess that the jurors will not waste much time in reading the voluminous instructions of the court. The reading public has long since ceased to follow the evidence in this trial and if the public is weary, what must be the condition of the jurors, who thru endless weeks have listened to the story as it has been told and retold.

Milk is selling at 15c a quart in the larger cities and it is understood that that is likely to be the price here. But someone has asked the comforting question of why complain about a quart of milk costing 15c when a quarter of a pint of whiskey sells still for a higher price. Nobody ever heard of good coming from the whiskey or called it nutritive, while a quart of milk has the food value of more than a pound of beefsteak.

PLACES BURDEN ON WILSON.

In the minds of many people the railroad situation now existing is the direct result of the action taken by congress in passing the Adamson bill, because of the threatening attitude of the railroad unions. At least it has been the popular belief that it was the fear of a complete tieup of transportation that made congress act. Now a former union official in testifying in the railroad inquiry has declared that the railroad brotherhoods would never have sought relief from congress had it not been for the influence of President Wilson. This ex-official declared in a sworn statement that the president urged the action taken.

THE ROOSEVELT MEMORIAL.

Representatives of seven states will meet in conference in Chicago tomorrow to plan for the special campaign for funds for the Roosevelt memorial. It is proposed to raise $5,000,000 for this good cause. Without doubt the directors of the movement will determine upon a memorial which will be of lasting use to humanity. The ex-president loved mankind and it would be wholly inappropriate to spend a great sum merely for the erection of some costly monument upon which the people can gaze. A monument of a more "living" type is deserved by Roosevelt.

THE DISCRIMINATING PUBLIC.

The fact that wholesalers are ordering little or none of the flour that the government had prepared for export and which is now offered to them at $10 a barrel, throws another side light on high living costs. The wholesalers say that there is no demand for an all wheat flour in jute bags weighing 140 pounds. The people want smaller sacks, 25 to 50 pounds, and are not satisfied except with the patent process flour.

After all, public taste and custom are large factors in living costs. All wheat flour is more healthful than patent flour and a much larger percentage of it can be manufactured from an equal amount of wheat by comparison with the patent flour. But the people as a rule will not buy it. The same thought applies to many other commodities.

NOTE ON SCHOOL BOARD QUESTION.

The board of education acted wisely, in view of all the facts, in deciding to submit to the people the questions as to whether a high school should be built now and also the question of issuing $220,000 in bonds for the erection of the building. The election has been called for next Tuesday, Aug. 19, and after that day has passed there will be no right on the part of the people to be dissatisfied with any action the board may take on these two questions, if this action is not in accord with the vote of the people at the election. The questions that are involved should not be decided by a few hundred people.

No matter what your views on these questions are, whether you are for or against the proposition, do not fail to vote at the election next Tuesday. Above all things if you do not vote, do not criticize the board.

THE DISTRIBUTION OF MILLIONS

Andrew Carnegie lived to be more than eighty years of age and his was a conspicuous life. It is not likely that for many lads to start to work at $1.20 a week that the future holds such vast wealth as that which the Scotchman amassed during the years of his life. While Mr. Carnegie attracted great attention because of his marvelous success in a business way and because of his enormous fortune made chiefly thru his wise choice of associates and lieutenants, his greatest fame came a comparatively few years ago with the statement that he had no intention of dying rich.

Mr. Carnegie determined upon the distribution of the major part of his vast fortune before his death. There were some eccentricities which marked his method of distribution of his millions but there is no question but that he accomplished great good along certain lines. The people of Jacksonville because of the Carnegie library have reason to honor his memory.

More millionaires would do well to follow the example of Mr. Carnegie and distribute their wealth for useful purposes before their final day instead of leaving their millions for relatives to quarrel over.

But in considering Mr. Carnegie's holdings and acquisitions thru the years, there are many people not holding radical views on the subject but who feel that there is something wrong with an economic system that makes possible the amassing of such a colossal fortune.

BURNING MONEY

Life is gay and blithe and sunny, since the peace dove hit the breeze; everyone is burning money just as though it grew on trees. I insist on thrift and saving, but there's none to heed my words; johnnies say that I am raving, and throw money to the birds. Men are drawing princely wages, and their breasts are filled with mirth, and they jeer foreboding sages who predict a day of death but that day will come as surely as tomorrow's sun will rise; things will then be going poorly with the giddy spendthrift guys. Things won't boom along forever as they're booming now, my friends; and the man who's truly clever saves as ably as he spends. It is patent to the knowing, in expansive times like these, that the kopecks won't be growing always on the shrubs and trees. There will come a day of trouble, when this boom is left behind, and the kopeck and the rouble will be mighty hard to find; happy then the lads whose wages have been safely placed in brine, who obeyed the seers and sages, when the saving graft was fine. And how sick will be the mortals who like spendthrifts now behave, who reply with jeers and chortles when we call on them to save!

DOUGLAS MALLOCH

THIS TOWN OF YOURS

The Chicago Tribune says of him: Douglas Malloch is a rare man, thoroly a man's man and yet with a fineness of spirit, a clearness of vision which has kept his boyish ideals as bright at forty as they were at twenty. And he has a sense of humor that no one can withstand. The Fort Worth Record recently called him one of the world's greatest optimists. The St. John's, N. B. Telegraph says: "The muse of wit is his steady companion; tipping his tongue with a wonderful humor. He reveals the spirit of the thinker beneath the garb of the jester." Judge, the New York humorous publication to which he is one of the principal contributors, declares that he "seasons every contact with wit of an electric quality."

His wit has practical value and he communicates much solid advice. Everybody's Magazine said: "There are new kinds of lectures now. The old kind, the inspirational kind, always took you way out of the day's routine. But this young man, Malloch! He is going to plunge you deeper into it than ever."

SEES A BIG CHANGE IN HIS SOLDIER SON

Prominent Police Official Says Improvement Is Due To Tanlac.

Nearly everybody in Kansas City either knows or has heard of Captain J. J. Ennis, who lives at 532 Jackson avenue, Kansas City, Missouri. Captain Ennis has been a member of the Kansas City police force for thirty years and is not only one of the oldest in point of service, but one of the most popular officers in the department.

In a recent statement regarding the benefits his son, Wilfred, has derived from the use of Tanlac, Captain Ennis said:

"The change I have seen take place in my son's health during the past few weeks certainly speaks well for Tanlac. Wilfred has been with Company A 12th Engineers in France for nearly two years and on returning was suffering from rheumatism and stomach trouble and was in a very bad run down condition. He tells me he had been suffering from aching joints in his shoulders, arms and legs for almost a year. He had no appetite and his stomach was so weak and upset that he could not retain much of anything he would eat. He complains of headache most of the time, often had dizzy spells, and was so weak he could just barely drag around."

"I had been reading so many statements from Kansas City people about Tanlac that I decided there must be something to it, and after inquiring about it of some parties, whom I have known for years, at the drug store, I bought a bottle for Wilfred. Well, he had not finished the first bottle until his appetite was better and the pains in his knees and shoulders were not so bad. He has taken three bottles up to this time and can eat and digest anything he wants. He was very nervous and restless before taking Tanlac and could not sleep much, but now he sleeps eight to nine hours every night. He now has a good position as yard clerk for the Kansas City Terminal Railway and is able to walk around and do his work with ease, as the rheumatic pains have left him entirely. He has recommended Tanlac to several of his friends who have used it with fine results. I consider Tanlac the best medicine out for such troubles and I will gladly verify this statement for anyone who may call to see me or write me."

Tanlac is sold in Jacksonville by Coover & Shreve; in Meredosia by Mr. R. B. Field; in Murrayville by M. E. Gilbert; in Waverly by Jones-Doying.

A simple but pretty home wedding occurred at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Doying on West College street at 4 o'clock Tuesday afternoon, when their elder daughter, Miss Helen Eugenia Doying, became the bride or Dr. Thomas Kincaid Jones of Athens, Ill. The ceremony was performed by Rev. W. E. Spoons and was witnessed by only the relatives and a few intimate friends of the young people.

The bride, who has spent her entire life in this city, is a young woman of charming personality. She is popular with a wide circle of friends, all of whom join in the best wishes at this time.

Dr. Jones is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Jones of Athens, Ill., and belongs to a family long prominent in that community. He is a veterinary surgeon and has recently received an appointment from the U. S. Bureau of Animal Industry. He will be located in Tennessee after August 20.

The young people have planned to be married a number of months ago but their plans were changed because of the war. The groom while in the senior year at the veterinary college enlisted in the medical corps and was in the service until December, 1918. Fol-

The Bostonia Sextette Club.

Under the directorship of that sterling musician, C. L. Staats, for years first clarinetists with the Boston Symphony Orchestra, the Bostonia Sextette Club is coming to the Chautauqua. The fact that this great organization has been engaged speaks eloquently of the character of the music which will feature the Chautauqua. Since 1889 the club held a most enviable musical reputation, having been many times compared with the great Kneisel Quartet and the world famous Flonzaleys, the supreme artists in the field of chamber music. The annual tours of the organizations have been the occasions of recurring triumphs, and the record of the club's appearances includes most of the leading colleges, universities and musical centers of the country. Mr. Staats, the leader, is unquestionably America's best known clarinetist. He was the first clarinetist with the Royal Italian opera; of Her Majesty's Theatre, London, at the great casino at Ostend, with Sousa's Band and with the Boston Symphony Orchestra. The personnel of the playing organization is of the highest character, and added strength is given by addition of the soprano soloist, whose beautiful voice has won for her a place of prominence among the singers of America.

NEW GRAIN COMPANY FORMED AT ALEXANDER

Almost Two Thirds of Stock in New Organization Already Subscribed—Directors Elected.

The Alexander Co-operative Grain Company was organized yesterday afternoon at a meeting of farmers held in Beerup's Hall at Alexander.

There were about forty men present at the meeting and all appeared enthusiastic over the proposal for a new company, a farmers' co-operative company, for that vicinity.

There are at the present time two elevators at Alexander, one owned by the Lewis, Lind & Co., and the other by Fred Six and the Illinois Grain Company. It has not yet been decided just what the new company will do in respect to an elevator but it is probable that a new structure will be erected at Alexander by the new formed organization in a short time.

In addition to the farmers residing in the vicinity who were present, there were A. C. Rice and County Advisor Kendall of this city and Assistant State Secretary Farlow of the Farmers' Grain Dealers Association of Bloomington.

Mr. Rice was chosen chairman of the meeting and George Ruble of near Alexander, secretary. During the session talks were heard from Mr. Kendall and from Mr. Farlow.

It was reported that already there were 70 subscribers to the stock in the new company. Almost two thirds of the $25,000 has already been subscribed.

After a number of talks by men present and in informal discussion of the company and its prospects the following directors were chosen: Joseph Bergschneider, Henry Ridder, John Luby, George Ruble A. W. Robertson, F. J. Kaiser, W. Barr Brown, F. F. Foster and John E. Erickson.

Within the next ten days these directors will meet to select officers for the company and transact other business of a necessary nature in the forming of the new enterprise.

THE IDEAL WOMAN

The great Napoleon once said: "My ideal woman is not the beautiful featured society belle, whose physician tries in vain to keep her in repair but the matron who reaches middle age in complete preservation—that woman is rendered beautiful by perfect health." To attain such health in middle life a woman must guard against those ills which drag her down and produce nervousness, headache, backaches, sleeplessness and "the blues." The standard remedy for such conditions is Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, which for forty-five years has been restoring women to health and strength.—Adv.

BIRTHDAY PARTY AT ALEXANDER TUESDAY

Alexander, Aug. 12.—A birthday party was given Tuesday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Ewen, the occasion being the eighteenth birthday of their daughter, Miss Lena Ewen. There were twenty young people present and they thoroughly enjoyed the evening with music and games. During the hours delicious refreshments were served.

Mrs. Margaret Colwell entertained a number of guests at her home in Alexander Sunday. The company included Misses Adala Dorsler and Dorothy Stiltgarber of St. Louis; Miss Maggie Vogel and Mrs. John Hullmann of Springfield; Mrs. Clifton Corrington of Jacksonville and Mr. and Mrs. George Snyder of Franklin.

DEATHS

Adams.

Brief mention was made yesterday of the death of Mrs. J. D. Adams at her home on South Main street. The funeral will be held at the residence Thursday afternoon at 3 o'clock, with interment at Diamond Grove cemetery.

Mrs. Adams' death occurred Monday night at 9:30 o'clock after but a few hours' illness, although she had been in failing health for a long period. The deceased was seventy-seven years of age on April 4 of the present year. As already indicated, the deceased was the daughter of George and Mary Becraft Simpkin, prominent and highly respected early residents of Jacksonville. The family had come here in an early day from England, starting from the town of York in 1849. The voyage took many weeks in those days but the passengers finally landed safely at Quebec. The family home was shortly afterward established in Morgan county.

As Mrs. Adams came here as a child she spent practically all of her life in the county. She was educated in the local schools and when she had established a home of her own it was known for its cordial hospitality. For a number of years Mr. and Mrs. Adams lived in the country and subsequently moved to Jacksonville, their home having been on South Main street for many years.

Mrs. Adams thru the years continued her membership in Diamond Grove Baptist church and lived in a way which gave her the high regard and esteem of all who knew her.

The deceased leaves no children and is the last of her own family, as her two brothers have passed on. Only her husband survives, John D. Adams, and in the time of sorrow he has the sympathy of numerous friends.

SUCCESSFUL FISHERMEN

Dr. H. A. Chapin, wife and daughter, have returned from their summer outing at Pentwater, Michigan, where at one time there were 29 Jacksonville people enjoying the attractions of the place. Dr. Chapin is enthusiastic over the fishing and various other forms of amusement. In proof of the fishing claim he exhibits, with pardonable pride, a photograph of himself and John K. Long with a string of 26 fine fish, calico bass with one exception and a large pickerel, and all were caught by the doctor and Mr. Long in two hours. Perish the thought of anything too but hooks by the gentlemen themselves in the catching; no silver baits or anything of the sort and they don't pretend to be especially expert anglers either.

CAPT. W. T. HARMON IS HOME AGAIN

Former Illinois College Director Returns From Overseas Service Was in Blackhawk Division.

Capt. William T. Harmon, returned yesterday from Camp Grant, where he received his discharge after overseas service of many months.

When war was declared by the United States Harmon was director of athletics at Illinois College. He entered the first officers training camp at Ft. Sheridan and received a commission as captain.

He was then sent to Camp Grant, where he remained for some time. He sailed for overseas with the Blackhawk division. After a short stay in England the division was sent to France. When the armistice was signed it was ready to take its place in the trenches.

The Blackhawk division returned home several months ago. Capt. Harmon, however, was assigned to military police duty and was kept in France until recently. While there he obtained a leave of absence and visited Ireland and other countries.

It is not known just what plans Capt. Harmon has for the future. It is known, however, that the trustees of Illinois have an attractive offer to make to him to again take charge of athletics at Illinois.

Just before the war started Capt. Harmon had about decided to quit coaching and take up other work. Whether he still has this in mind is not known. His many friends here hope that he will accept the offer of the college and again take charge on the hill where he turned out so many championship teams.

COL. HARDIN'S FUNERAL SERVICE IS RECALLED

Military Honors Paid Here in 1847 to Mexican War Hero—Interesting Souvenir is Property of Major Fisher of Springfield.

Major Fisher of the state auditor's office, whose father was a captain of the Hardin rifles of Springfield has in his possession a document which money could not buy. This is no less than a copy of the publication issued at the time of the burial of Col. Hardin and Capt. Zabriskie, outlining the order of procession and the exercises in connection with their funeral.

It was in the early summer of 1847 that notable arrangements were made for the funeral of Col. Hardin, who was killed at the battle of Buena Vista, and also the funeral of Capt. Jacob Zabriskie, who fell at the same battle. The printed statement as to the arrangements for the funeral was issued before the exact date of the service was known. It was known that the first regiment of Illinois volunteers would return with the remains of the two fallen heroes and it was arranged that upon the receipt of information that the volunteers had arrived in Meredosia that a national salute would be fired on College Hill and a procession of citizens and others would form on the public square in the following order:

Order of Parade.
First—Citizens and others on foot; second, Citizens and others in carriages, third, citizens and others on horseback.

It was arranged further that the procession would later move to the "first timber on the Meredosia road and await the arrival of the escort from Meredosia." When the procession arrived in the sight of town the college and church bells began to toll and continued until the procession arrived under the flag opposite the court house where an address was delivered to the volunteers by Hon. William Brown. Afterward the procession moved to the late residence of Col. Hardin where the remains were placed until the next morning. The impressive service at 10 o'clock the next morning and the funeral procession was one of the largest ever known in Morgan county.

Dignitaries Present.
In addition to the soldiers present the governor of the state, together with judges of the U. S. supreme courts of Illinois, the members of the Illinois state convention, in addition to prominent local residents, were in line. The procession moved up State

On the back of the document which gives the facts about the service were the following paragraphs, evidently written by Major Fisher's father.
At a meeting of the Hardin Infantry, held in Springfield 9th July, 1847, an invitation to visit Jacksonville on the occasion of the burial of the late highly respected and deeply lamented Col. Hardin, slain at the battle of Buena Vista on the 23rd of April, 1847, it was resolved that having already testified our sincere respect to the memory of the gallant Col. Hardin by naming our company after him, that we embrace the opportunity offered of attending his funeral as a company and by so doing, testify our sense of his worth during his lifetime and our regret that it has pleased an overruling Providence to take him from among us.

That we each proceed to Jacksonville on Tuesday, the 13th inst. and that a committee be appointed to make the necessary arrangements, that this resolution be signed by the captain on behalf of the company, a copy sent to J. R. Simms, Esq., to be laid before the committee on the occasion.

The chief clerks are working early and late in an effort to complete the work of the timekeepers and thus inconvenience the employees as little as possible. It is now hoped to have the pay rolls all completed and in the Chicago office of the paymaster so that the checks can be made out and distributed on Aug. 20, one week late.

MORGAN COUNTY FARM TOPICS

Rain Stops Threshing.

The rain Tuesday afternoon again put a stop to threshing operations in Morgan county for the time being. If the sun shines this morning it may be possible to resume work today, otherwise there will be no threshing done before Thursday.

The summer season is now so far advanced that farmers who have not been able to secure a machine are beginning to worry somewhat and to wish that they had stacked their wheat and waited for fall threshing. Now that grain has been so long in the stack, farmers who have not threshed will be at a distinct disadvantage if there are frequent rains this month.

Lack of Freight Service Costly
The interrupted freight service is a matter of annoyance to farmers and there have been very few stock shipments in the past two weeks. In some instances this has meant a distinct loss. Farmers who have had fat hogs ready for shipment have been forced to watch a declining market without the ability to send the stock forward. Then it sometimes happens that when hogs get to a certain point and are really ready for shipment, it does not pay to feed them high priced corn.

Review of Crop Conditions
A. N. English, secretary of the Illinois Farmers' Grain Dealers Association is quoted by the Bloomington Pantagraph as stating that after a trip all over northern Illinois he considers the corn prospect as equal to that of any of the past five years. He thinks that the crop will mature early this year, as in a number of instances it is 10 to 15 days ahead of the season.

It must be remembered that there have been more frequent rains in the northern part of the state this year than in the central part. That fact helped out the spring wheat proposition in the northern counties and there were many fields there averaging 12 bushels to the acre, while some spring wheat in Morgan county has threshed out only 5 bushels an acre.

This short crop was due to the fact of the hot, dry weather which came on at a time when the wheat needed cooler weather and greater moisture.

Saving Clover from Grasshoppers
Henry Stewart on his farm south of Orleans is still doing battle with grasshoppers that infested a 40 acre field of clover which he wants to utilize for feed. Mr. Stewart has already gathered in a number of bushels of grasshoppers with an apparatus that he made himself and several times a week goes after more of the insects, with the result that the field will be only slightly damaged. The "machine" Mr. Stewart built for this work is made of two by four sixteen feet long.

Wright Bros. Purchase Implement Stock of Hall Bros. in Murrayville—Members of Firm Experienced in the Business.

Announcement was made yesterday that Wright Bros. have purchased the implement stock of Hall Bros. in Murrayville and will continue the business in the building until recently occupied by Wright & Solomon. In addition to other implements they will carry the well known John Deere line, together with tractors, and will also deal extensively in hardware. Both members of the firm are experienced in the business and because of that fact, their wide acquaintance and high standing, they will undoubtedly prosper. These young men are sons of the late W. B. Wright, long one of the most prominent and respected citizens of Murrayville. They are thus connected with some of the best known families in the south part of Morgan county.

J. W. Wright was a member of the firm of Wright & Solomon, recently dissolved. That business was conducted in a successful and progressive way and Mr. Wright had experience that will be very valuable to him in the days to come.

Warren E. Wright returned only a few months since from overseas service in the army, where he was connected with the graves registration service. After his discharge Mr. Wright located for a short time in Chicago and then decided there was no place to live like Morgan county.

As already indicated, Wright Bros. are fortunate in having dependable, well-known lines to offer their patrons and they begin their business together under very fortunate circumstances.

MRS. C. A. BARNES RETURNS FROM IDAHO

Mrs. C. A. Barnes returned to the city Monday evening after a pleasant outing of seven weeks in Idaho. Several weeks were spent camping in a canyon in picturesque portion of that state and then Mrs. Barnes was at the Geyer Hot Springs in the mountainous mining district of Idaho. One of the interesting places visited was the park which the city of Boise maintains solely for tourists. Within this park there is a kitchen equipped with the most up to date facilities, and tourists may have the use of this kitchen for a very nominal sum.

ALTON FREIGHT TRAFFIC IMPROVING
Officials Claim Business Will Be Up to Normal Proportions This Week.

Four heavy meat trains for Chicago via Bloomington left Kansas City over the Chicago and Alton yesterday and the officials reported that freight traffic will be up to normal proportions this week, following the return of all mechanics helpers and others who went out on a strike at Kansas City, Slater, Booth and Roodhouse. When the men at Venice learned that all were back at Roodhouse and points east, they too, went back to their posts yesterday. The men out at Springfield were reported yesterday as ready for the same action and a number of the maintenance employees there went back without waiting for the remainder. This leaves Bloomington, Peoria, Dwight, Joliet and Chicago still out, although only a few men are employed at Peoria, Dwight and Joliet.

O'DONNELL OVERCOMES FREIGHT CONGESTION
On account of no freight shipments and inability to secure deliveries of cars, L. F. O'Donnell drove to Springfield Saturday night and unloaded a car of autos stalled at that point. He was accompanied by Mrs. O'Donnell and daughters Frances and Lucille. Mr. O'Donnell and his "train" reached Jacksonville Tuesday afternoon, the Paige cars rescued from the tie-up being driven here by J. W. O'Donnell, Miss Nona O'Donnell and Lawrence O'Donnell, relatives of L. F. O'Donnell and residents of East St. Louis. The latter named persons were glad of the chance to help a brother in trouble and of the opportunity to pay a visit here.

Nu Bone
Corsets are for the woman who desires to appear at her best at all times without sacrificing comfort and health or attempting to coerce her figure into unnatural lines. Nu-Bone stays will not break or rust. They will lengthen or shorten, give or take to meet any strain. This prevents the "end thrust" which is so uncomfortable and so destructive to corsets and gowns.

ALTON PAY DAY ONE WEEK LATE

Strike of Timekeepers Delays Work of Getting Pay Checks Out.

Today was to have been pay day on the Alton, but it will be delayed one week. Chief Clerk John McDonald, of Supt. S. P. Henderson's office at Bloomington, has devoted his entire time since the strike in getting out the pay rolls for the men on the road, while Chief Clerk R. J. McGrath of Supt. G. W. Seidel's office, has been working on the pay rolls for the shopmen. When the timekeepers walked out on Aug. 4 the pay rolls for the last half of July were nearing completion. The chief clerks are working early and late in an effort to complete the work of the timekeepers and thus inconvenience the employees as little as possible. It is now hoped to have the pay rolls all completed and in the Chicago office of the paymaster so that the checks can be made out and distributed on Aug. 20, one week late.

BUSY ICING AND WATERING COACHES

General Passenger Agent of Alton Worked With Other Officials at Bloomington.

George J. Charlton, general passenger agent of the Chicago & Alton railroad, returned to Chicago yesterday after helping out at Bloomington for several days, icing and watering coaches. Mr. Charlton, attired in a suit of overalls, has been working from early morn until late at night and the passengers of the various trains doubtless little knew that the man who labored so graciously to provide for their comfort was the chief passenger official of the road and one of the most prominently known traffic officials of the United States. But for the efforts of Mr. Charlton and his fellow officials there would have been an absence of ice water upon many of the Alton trains. Mr. Charlton was relieved by his assistant, W. H. Abel from the Chicago offices.

Two local boys went to Springfield a week since to enlist in the cavalry branch of the army service. One of the boys, Ben Large, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Large of East Superior avenue, is now at Jefferson Barracks. However he was unable to get into the cavalry and so enlisted in the infantry branch. The other boy, was Roy Rife, son of Mrs. Clarence Ham of this city. He is just eighteen years of age and as his mother refused to give her consent to his enlistment, he was compelled to give up his hopes of an army career and has returned to this city.

HAVE NO WORD FROM U. S. ARMY FOODSTUFFS

Two Probable Methods of Government Officials for the Sale of the Food.

The local postoffice officials still have no word from Washington relative to selling the over-supply of army groceries to the public at low prices, altho the officials have been looking for some such word each day.

Neither have city officials received any word from the war or postal department relative to cities buying large amounts of the stuff and selling it out to the public.

However it is believed that two methods are being used by the government officials for the sale of the various foodstuffs. One is to sell to cities and in that case, it is understood that nothing less than carload lots can be bought. This is the plan which it is hoped will be available to Jacksonville residents.

The other plan, it is believed, will be to not ship groceries here to the postoffice, but simply a cost list. Then from this cost list, people can select what they want to order, make out the order and a money order for the amount and give it to the postmaster.

This order and money order would then be sent to some central supply station, probably Chicago or St. Louis, and from that place, the orders would be filled and sent out by mail. Something that supports this idea is the report that authority has been granted at Washington to temporarily increase the parcel post limit to 125 pounds for the benefit of army food buyers.

However, none of these things have been confirmed by official orders from Washington and until such time, no step can be taken. There are advantages and disadvantages to either plan.

By the city plan where the corporation has to buy in not less than carload lots, some one would have to advance perhaps $12,000 or more, would then have to establish a market in some warehouse and get a force of clerks to get the stuff out.

On the other hand, the postal delivery plan would simply mean people ordering in small quantities and putting up the cash in advance and getting the goods delivered by mail.

FORMER RESIDENT IS VISITOR IN CITY

William A. Chambers Finds Many Changes After Absence of Thirty-six Years—Is Now Resident of Mercer County.

William A. Chambers, formerly a resident of this city but now of Viola, Ill., arrived in the city Thursday for a visit with friends. It was thirty-six years ago that Mr. Chambers left this city and he has never been here since until the present time. He naturally finds many changes in the city and familiar landmarks are quite scarce. Mr. Chambers is 74 years of age but is in excellent health.

Mr. Chambers was born in Philadelphia, Pa., and at the age of five years came to this county with his parents who settled on a farm a short distance north-west of the city. This was the family home for many years and Mr. Chambers afterward became a resident of this city. Thirty-six years ago he purchased a farm near Viola, Mercer county, Ill., and has since resided there.

The visitor states that the crop prospects in the vicinity of his home are excellent and that the farmers there are anticipating a bumper yield from their fields. Mr. Chambers will be in the city for several days.

WABASH HANDLES FREIGHT TUESDAY

Local and One Fast Freight Train Thru City for First Time in Ten Days.

Jacksonville residents had the unique experience yesterday of witnessing moving freight trains on the Wabash. For the first time in ten days local freights were operated all along the Wabash system and one thru freight on that line went west during the day. These trains handled merchandise only, no carload stuff at all.

Local Agent Marshall stated yesterday, however, that there will be no local freight thru Jacksonville today. He could assign no reason for running the local one day only, except that arrangements could not be made to handle the train again today.

It may be that the meeting held in Decatur Monday had something to do with the Wabash freight trains of yesterday.

The union heads from all over the Wabash system were in Decatur Monday for a conference. There were sixty or seventy of them and they represented all the different divisions and terminals and the various union organizations.

Walter Gallings, general chairman of the Brotherhood of Railway Clerks is in Decatur also. He has been in Washington for the last two or three months working on a new schedule for clerks and it is stated that he was called to Illinois by the strike.

It was stated with assurance by several Wabash clerks that the clerks in Decatur will go back to work tomorrow regardless of the course that other striking employees may pursue.

Three freight trains were run into Decatur by the Wabash Sunday night, one of them a train of sixty cars of wheat. Wabash officials say that they still have plenty of engines to keep passenger trains moving with a few freight trains a day.

NATIVE OF BRAZIL IS VISITING HERE

Theodore Oliver Now a Resident of Chicago Spending Vacation Here—Parents Were From Isl- and of Madeira.

An interesting young gentleman from Chicago is a visitor in this city. His name is Theodore Oliver, though he is a native of San Joaquin, Brazil, while his parents came there from Madeira. The father died many years ago leaving the mother, two little boys and an aunt. They remained a time in their home south of the Equator but five years ago decided to try their fortunes in the great metropolis of the western part of the United States and have had no reason to regret their decision.

Mr. Oliver is shipping clerk for the great house of Hart, Schaffner & Marx and is a bright, vivacious and interesting young man. He has a brother who is just back from the great war and the slipping of the armistice prevented him from having a hand in whipping the Hun. The mother, aunt and sons live very pleasantly in their home by the great lake.

Mr. Oliver has no acquaintances in our city but learning there were here many of the descendants of the exiles from Madeira speaking his language, he came down to enjoy his vacation here and is having and giving too, a pleasant time.

BASKET OF CLOTHES WAS NOT STOLEN

Clothes Left on Landing at Alexander Apartments Were Taken to Barr's Laundry — Driver Thought They Belonged to W. Barr Brown Who Lives in Second Apartment.

Monday afternoon a basket of clothes designed for the wash and belonging to H. A. Breeden disappeared from the second landing of the Alexander apartment building.

Terl Johnson, a young colored boy, had gone for the clothes and took them from the Breeden apartment on the third floor and left them on the second landing while he went on another errand. When he returned the basket had disappeared.

The Johnson boy and another boy named House were taken to the police station where they told such conflicting stories that the police thought they knew something about the matter.

It appeared, however, that Barr's laundry has been getting washing from the apartment on the second floor which is occupied by W. Barr Brown. Mr. Brown's family is out of the city for the summer. Monday when the driver of the Barr Laundry truck passed the apartment building he saw the basket on the second landing and supposed the family had returned home. He took it down to the laundry and turned it in.

The clothing was not examined until Tuesday morning when Mr. Barr found that it belonged to Mr. Breeden. This coupled with the story in the Journal soon cleared up the mystery. The basket was returned to the flat by Mr. Barr with apologies for the mistake.

Both of the suspects who had been held at the station overnight were then released. Chief Kiloran, however, warned them that in the future they should tell a straightforward story.

Professor H. Strauss, M. D., of the Royal Charity Hospital, says, "The use for an attack of gout, rheumatism, or any other condition of the blood, is supplied by the increase in uric acid in the blood serum, the result of various causes, the most frequent of which is renal. Before an attack, or when sometimes from headache, neuralgia, twinges of pain here and there, or when your kidneys feel like lumps, or when the back hurts or the urine is cloudy, full of sediment, or you are obliged to seek relief two or three times during the night; when you suffer with headache, or dizzy, nervous spell, or stomach; or you have rheumatism or lumbago, gout, sciatica, or any other condition of the blood, do not neglect to try simple means. Take eight glasses of water during the day, then obtain at your nearest drug store 'An-uric' (anti-uric acid). This is the discovery of Dr. Pierce's 'Invalids' Hotel, Buffalo, N. Y. 'An-uric' is an antidote for this uric acid, dissolves uric acid in the blood, and by much as hot coffee dissolves sugar, 'An-uric' will penetrate into the joints, muscles, and dissolve the poisonous accumulations. It will stamp out toxins. See 10 cents to Dr. Pierce's 'Invalids' Hotel, Buffalo, N. Y., for trial package."

A "HERO HOME" is a COZY HOME!

Think Over the Following Facts About the

"Hero" Pipeless Furnace

The cold winter weather has no terrors for its users. Their homes are warm throughout in zero weather and they are helping us make more sales everywhere. Basements are not overheated nor cluttered up with pipes. Our guarantee protects them from any risk. The saving of coal is wonderful, because all the heat units of the coal are diffused throughout the house, instead of being lost through long pipes and up the chimney. The Vapor Pans clean, wash and moisten the air. The Humidity is very beneficial to the lungs and body. One register only, saves cutting up the house and makes it a one day job to install. If house has no basement, a pit can be made, large enough for furnace and coal.

Your house heated is worth much more than unheated. What else can you buy for your family that will give the same satisfaction, service and economy? The Hero Pipeless Furnace is the result of 30 years of practical heating experience. It makes every user a booster.

AROUND HOME

Owing to a lack of transportation facilities, many elevator men including some in the vicinity of Mattoon, are refusing grain of any kind at Mattoon. At Dorans, oats are being piled on the ground, despite the fact that a rainy season would result in great damage.

A number of farmers of near Pana are a little "blue" over the prospects of their corn crop this year. Some of the corn north and east of here was laid flat Wednesday evening by the wind and rain.

Mrs. Sarah A. Burch, 81 years old, died at 6 o'clock Monday morning at the home of her daughter, Mrs. A. C. Stephens at Litchfield.

Henry Dixon, the 11-year-old son of Mrs. Mary Dixon of Petersburg, suffered a severe injury while riding his bicycle along the west side of the square when he crashed into a truck driven by Horace Campbell and was thrown beneath the wheels. Three car loads of sugar reached Decatur Monday so that the jobbers felt just a little more liberal than they did last week although the unsettled railroad condition is causing the wholesaler to caution the trade to dispense sugar very carefully.

What does that mean?

Never mind the Even N. Webster, with all his definitions of "satisfy", missed out on its smoke-meaning.

That's where you'll find

DOG RAISES LION KITTENS

She was an ordinary coach dog with a motherly instinct and friendly disposition, but now she is famous for having fostered many orphaned babies, not of the dog family, but lion, tiger and puma kittens.

Those familiar with wild animals know that jungle "cats" will not raise their young in captivity unless they are isolated and kept very quiet, and only in few instances under these favorable circumstances have they been known to raise their young. Therefore, owners and keepers of wild felines raise the young by hand, goat milk being the usual diet. However, all babies like to be cuddled, but it is a difficult matter to find a domestic animal that takes kindly to claws and fangs of "cats," whose first instinct is to claw and scratch.

When "Sport" was first introduced to a family of lion kittens with their eyes still closed, she felt sorry for them, but when they became hungry and shivered, her mother heart was touched. Sport's noble nature could not endure the thought of leaving these hungry and cold babies to face the world alone and mother-like, she huddled close to the squirming balls of fluff and claws, covered them with her body as best she could,
took their clawing and gave them their meals.

Sport has to her credit three litters of lion kittens that she has raised, two tiger families and five puma off-springs. She is now fostering her sixth litter of jungle babies. All these happenings took place in the secret inner circles of the Al G. Barnes circus, and Sport is responsible for the show being able to have a jungle nursery when the show comes to Jacksonville, Aug. 18, giving afternoon and night performances in which almost every species of beast known has been taught to do a circus trick. There will be a parade in the morning, and doors to the main show will open at 1 and 7 p. m.

Feeding the Millions

INCREASING the food supply of the world is the most vital problem which man must solve. The burden of this solution rests heavily upon the shoulders of the farmers of America.

The service rendered by the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) in producing fuel and lubricants for the economical and efficient operation of farm machinery has made it possible for the farmer to cultivate a greater acreage, produce larger crops, and get them to market at least expense.

By maintaining its comprehensive system of distribution, the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) makes it possible for the farmer to get his requirements of petroleum products easily, regularly and quickly.

By virtue of this complete service on the part of the Standard Oil Company (Indiana), he may, literally, "make hay while the sun shines."

He is independent of the health or endurance of horses. He can plow, cultivate or harvest when these tasks should be done. He can have a complete cycle of activity, operating even by shifts, if necessary. He can plan his operations on a definite schedule to produce a steady, constant supply of farm products for you and your family.

Thus is illustrated how you benefit by the service rendered by the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) to the farmer. These are benefits accruing to the world at large which accentuate the usefulness of the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) as a public servant, and emphasize how completely it discharges its obligation as such.

WATCH YOUR STEP WHEN KILLING BIRDS

Shooters Should Acquaint Themselves with Regulations Under New Federal Migratory Bird Treaty Act.

A few days ago a resident of northern Illinois shot some robins. He did not know he was violating a law of the United States, but found out about it when he was arrested by a United States marshal, taken before a United States commissioner and bound over to a United States grand jury where he will probably be indicted under the new federal migratory bird treaty act.

In 1916 Canada and the United States entered into a treaty for the protection of migratory birds and in 1918 the congress of the United States passed a law to enforce the provisions of the treaty with Canada.

This migratory bird treaty act makes it unlawful to hunt, take, capture or kill, offer to sell, sell or ship, at any time or in any manner, any migratory bird included in the terms of the treaty with Canada, or any part, nest or egg of any such birds, except under such regulations as may be made by the department of agriculture.

Birds in the Treaty. The birds mentioned in the treaty include migratory game birds which may be killed in open seasons, which have been fixed by regulations of the department of agriculture, and, migratory insectivorous birds, bobolinks, catbirds, chickadees, cuckoos, flickers, flycatchers, grosbeaks, humming birds, kinglets, martins, meadowlarks, night hawks, or bull-bats, nuthatches, orioles, robins, shrikes, swallows, swift, tanager, titmouse, thrushes, vireos, warblers, waxwings, whip-poor-wills, woodpeckers and wrens, and all other perching birds which feed entirely or chiefly on insects. Also migratory non-game birds, including bitterns, grebes, gulls, herons, loons, shearwaters and terns.

Includes Native Birds. The list of migratory insectivorous birds includes most of our native birds as these birds feed chiefly on insects.

Issues Regulations. The department of agriculture has issued regulations for the killing of the migratory game birds in open seasons, but there is no open season for killing the non-game and insectivorous migratory birds. The regulations provide for the issuance of permits by the department of agriculture to take birds for scientific purposes and also provide that if any of the birds mentioned become injurious in any community, the secretary of agriculture may after an investigation permit the killing of birds damaging property.

Violate Federal Law. Inasmuch as this law of the United States protects practically all the smaller birds common to Illinois, and as there have been no permits to kill any of them in this community on account of damage done by them, persons killing any of the smaller birds are most likely to violate the law, and the violation of a law of the United States is always an expensive, if not serious, matter. Under the law, if any of these birds damage your property, you cannot kill them without violating the law, unless permitted to do so by the department of agriculture.

Crime Against Civilization. The slaughter of our native birds has been a crime against civilization. We have for years had state laws to protect them but these have not been observed. In Jacksonville much has been accomplished for the protection of the birds and every observant person has noticed the increasing numbers of the birds in and about the city. Still there are boys and men who kill birds and destroy their nests. A bird lover who travels over the country remarked a few days ago upon the number of birds in Jacksonville and the scarcity of them in the rural regions and small towns and explained that boys in the smaller towns killed off all bird life.

An Economic Matter. The preservation of bird life is an economic matter for birds protect crops and trees. Bird-lovers and those who recognize the economic value of our birds believe the new federal law will stop the destruction of bird life. Thoughtless and malicious persons may continue for a time to destroy them, but by the time the United States marshals have grabbed a few of these hunters and they have had experience in the United States court at Springfield, the practice of destroying bird life will stop, and parents will quit giving their boys air guns and bird-rifles to kill English sparrows, for it requires a trained eye to distinguish between the English sparrow and many species of migratory birds, the killing of which is prohibited.

From County Agents Office

Dr. W. L. Burlison of the College of Agriculture is making an inquiry for pure bred seed wheat and seed oats. Apparently good seed is difficult to find in this season of the year. We hope that farmers in this county who have anything that answers this description will let us know what they have without delay.

Hopper Dozer. Henry Stewart, southwest of Orlin, perhaps is the pioneer in this county in constructing a hopper dozer. The county agent recently visited Mr. Stewart's farm and saw this dozer in operation. It is certainly worth going to see. Mr. Stewart will be out there on Tuesday and Wednesday of this week and will gladly welcome anybody that calls to see the machine in operation. Mr. Stewart thinks that the grass hopper will continue to come worse if the farmers do not make a strenuous effort to kill them off. The county agent believes that Mr. Stewart is right and urges farmers to construct dozers, catchers, and use the poison mash. In the case of the young alfalfa that will come up this month, the poison mash will be the thing to apply. From 65 to 75 per cent of the hoppers will be killed by one application.

Limestone. Quite a lot of limestone has been ordered for Murrayville and vicinity. The farmers want to use it on alfalfa fields or else to have it to apply as a top dressing for wheat so as to enable them to grow a good crop of clover. There is a great demand for limestone this season. Some counties farther south are ordering it by the train loads. We ought to be using a great deal more than we are.

Chapin Horse Show. This is a community project that is worth the support of every farmer in Morgan and Scott counties. It really is in scope of a community fair. Lets all go out to Chapin on Thursday of this week and by our presence help the boys to better a worthy project. All of our large communities ought to have a show along some special line similar to this. In one place it may be a corn and alfalfa show, another place a dairy show and still another a tractor demonstration. We have a number of fine communities in this county and the way to make them better, livelier and more attractive in every way is to get up affairs that will be of interest to surrounding counties.

PRICE OF CANDY TAKES ANOTHER RISE

Advances Three to Five Cents per Pound During Last Few Weeks

The school teacher who has been planning to give her usual candy treat to the youngsters of her school next Christmas would do well to lay aside some extra money to buy the candy.

In other days country school teachers who gave treats to their children at the end of the first term bought the candy by the bucket for seven or possibly eight cents per pound. According to a wholesale candy man the same kind of candy will be selling at 30 cents per pound next Christmas.

Candy has advanced in price from three to five cents a pound during the last three weeks due to many causes, advances in labor, packages and cases being the principal reasons given for the advance.

Glucose has also advanced and that helps to hit the low priced candies much harder than the kind that retails from 60 cents to a dollar a pound.
